

role	Model-maker	perm/cont	freelance
Reports to	Snr Design & Development Consultant

PDD has an exciting opportunity for a talented model-maker. If you are looking to fully utilise your passion for model-making in a fast paced leading innovation consultancy this could be the role for you.

Responsibilities

- Support the existing Development Centre team with additional model-making activities previous/current profile

- Degree in either model-making or product/industrial design
- Experience in professional model-making on work delivered to clients

Key skills/requirements

- Confident use of manual mill, lathe, circular saw, bandsaw etc
- Able to work up a high quality surface finish on a model
- Confident applying various textures using cellulose paint spray gun system
- Knowledge of silicone tool creation and vacuum casting

PDD offers competitive short and long term freelance rates.

To apply for this position please send a CV to careers@pdd.co.uk We look forward to hearing from you.